TO THE VOTERS OF SHENANDOAH COUNTY.
I announce myself as a candidate for County Clerk, subject to the decision of the Republican County Convention. If elected G. Harry Hann will be my deputy.
We propose to conduct the office in the same courteous, systematic, systematic and business-like manner as heretofore.
Thanking you most heartily for the confidence heretofore reposed in me, I am most respectfully,
L. S. WALKER.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the position of County Clerk of Shenandoah County. I make this announcement subject to the decision of the Republican Party. I take as the motto of my campaign "I will do it." I desire also in this manner to confide in the honor of the honor conferred upon me in choosing me as their representative in the House of Delegates, I assure them that the honor has been highly appreciated.
At the same time, as a matter of fact, I accept the nomination at the hands of my party because I believe it to be my duty to do so, though I know it would result in a very considerable financial and professional loss to me. I have endeavored to serve my country and State faithfully, and I expect to do so in the future. I am at all times ready to perform my duty to the best of my ability and with the most conscientious of conscience. Very respectfully yours, erection of a handsome residence on North Mühlenberg street, on the lot recently purchased from Mrs. Lucinda Few. This is a very eligible location, commanding a fine view of the Massannutt range of mountains. The new building will add much to the appearance of that section of the town.

The road from Woodstock to Powell's Fort is in winter icy, but at all times steep in places, but these things do not discourage one of our citizens who makes a regular pilgrimage every Saturday to the beautiful valley East of us. His regular visits have excited the curiosity of a number of his friends and it may become necessary to establish a trolley line for the accommodation of those who are anxious to spend Sunday between the mountains.

The rapid growth of the University of Virginia in popular good will and enrollment is a matter of pride to Virginians, who are especially favorable in having it as a part of their public free school system. Its enrollment this session is 706, fifty-three per cent. being Virginians. That Virginians may pursue their studies at the University, in the Academic Department, free of tuition charges, is of inestimable value to the people of this State.

Our genial friend, of the Shenandoah Valley is so elated over the possession of an automobile in New Market that he expresses his delight as follows:
"So far as informed, there is no other automobile between Harrisonburg and Winchester, and New Market is ahead of its sister towns in this respect."

Why, bless your soul, automobiles have a bad number in Woodstock.
Three years ago you could have seen a Woodstock automobile spinning through our streets and visiting neighboring towns. New Market is a good old town, but she is not ahead even in this respect. Come down, Brother, and we will show you waterworks that cannot be surpassed in the state, electric lights of almost unlimited brilliancy, and teams of well-bred roasters that will make your automobile ashamed of itself.

Death of Margaret Paxton.

Margaret Paxton, the ten year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Paxton, died at the Strasburg Hospital last Wednesday afternoon of appendicitis.
She was taken sick last Friday afternoon. Her condition growing worse, a physician was called in on Saturday.
On Monday, she seemed to improve, but as evening approached her condition caused increased anxiety. On Tuesday, she was taken to the hospital and was immediately operated upon for appendicitis.

Her condition was such that little hope of recovery was entertained.
She was an unusually bright and affectionate child, and was much loved by all who knew her. Her funeral will take place to-day, Friday, at 10 A. M.
In their deep bereavement, Mr. and Mrs. Paxton, and the other members of the family, have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community.

Death of Prof. A. J. Turner.
Prof. A. J. Turner, who organized the home of his daughter, in Indianapolis, Ind., on Sunday night the 14th inst.

Prof. Turner was fast approaching his 90th year.
He at one time taught a band in Woodstock consisting, in part, of Major Isaac Haas, Michael Melhorn, Philip Rodeffer, Wm. J. Supinger, David Fravel, Jno. H. Fravel, Chapman Kneisley, with Jacob Anderson

Do Not Advertise Honestly.
There are some men in business who are honest and handle honest goods and sell at honest prices. The unintended reflection is that all other dealers in the same line are dishonest and sell dishonest goods at dishonest prices. The public is quick and keen to catch defects in expressions and is slow to accord to such self proclaimed honest men the benefit of praise they deserve. The better way to do is to allow the impression of integrity in business to grow of its own accord. It is bound to grow if it exists. To keep honest goods is a duty, to sell goods at a moderate profit is good business tact and the community will soon recognize the honest man in the dishonest man in the manner in which he conducts his business. C. A. Saum.

A Card of Thanks.
Mr. Lin R. Irwin and family wishes to extend their most sincere and heartfelt thanks to their many friends for their kindness and sympathy extended to them in their sad hours of bereavement, by the loss of a kind mother and a loving wife.

AN IMPORTANT CASE DECIDED.

On last Saturday in the Circuit Court of this county the case of Walters vs. Huff was decided. The case was a test one and came up for the first time in Virginia. The exemption laws of Virginia provide that the wages of a laboring man who is a householder and head of a family shall be exempt from liability for debt up to $50 per month.

West Virginia has no exemption law. Some merchants in Virginia have been selling their claims to parties in West Virginia, where they could be collected by garnishment. To stop this the Virginia Legislature several years ago enacted a law providing that whenever any person in Virginia sold or assigned a claim or debt against a resident of Virginia for the purpose of evading the Virginia exemption law, such person should be liable to a suit for the amount of the exempt wages so taken and the costs.

Walters was represented by Messrs.
R. E. Byrd, of Winchester and W. T.
Williams, of this place. Huff was represented by Messrs. Tavenner and Bauterman and Walton and Stickley.

This decision may be in accordance with law, but it is a law which works a great hardship upon the merchant. If a merchant credits an employer on a railroad or any other laborer who does not receive over $50 per month, the debt is one of honor and cannot be enforced by law. Such laws are hard upon honest laborers; for it completely destroys their credit. It would seem from the decision which was in favor of Walters, if a merchant has an account against a laborer he cannot dispose of it all. For if he sell to a third party, that party may go to a state where he can enforce the claim. The Railroad Companies were anxious to have the question definitely settled, as they are greatly annoyed by garnishment cases.

CHURCH NOTES.

Rev. J. W. Kitzmeyer, of Charles Town will preach in the Lutheran Church, next Sunday morning and night.

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered in the Presbyterian Church next Sunday. Preparatory services on Thursday and Friday nights and Saturday morning.

In the Methodist Church, last Sunday, regular services were held morning and night.
At the morning service, it was announced that the building committee had accepted a bid for the building of a new church. The present church will probably be torn down after the services of next Sunday.

The new church according to the plans will have a frontage on Mühlen-berg street of one hundred feet. It will be a modern edifice conforming in every respect to the most approved plans of the architects of the present day. In short it will be an up to date church.

Next Sunday, the entire membership of the church is invited to be present, at which time, the plans will be fully explained, and the means of paying for it will be discussed in a practical way.

Messrs. W. M. Bucher & Son, of Harrisonburg, have been awarded the contract for the new Methodist church, to cost, complete and furnished, about $15,000.

CONTEST AT SHENANDOAH.
Notice of contest has been served on the voters and citizens of Shenandoah, Page county, with a view to annulling the recent local option election. When the town went "dry" by a vote of 48 to 44.

The notice of contest, filed through Attorneys R. S. Parks and R. F.
Leedy, specifies four or five grounds of exception, among them the following: That many voters who were not permitted to vote were in fact qualified to do so; that three dry voters who were permitted to vote as old soldiers, not having paid the poll tax, were not in the military branch of the Confederate service and not "old soldiers"; that the writ of election was not granted by the court within 10 days after application was made for same, as the law requires; and, lastly, that the election is illegal because held within thirty days of the regular election for town officers, contestants claiming that the latter falls on the 6th and not the 13th of June.

Wardensville.
The Wardensville correspondence to Moorefield Examiner May 18th says: We find in going over the country that the peach crop bids fair to be an average crop. The freeze did not kill nearly so many as people thought.
Cherries and plums are all killed; apples will be plentiful if nothing more happens to the crop.

Dr. Maphis, of Staunton, Va., is still at Wilsons Hotel and kept right busy repairing the bad teeth of our good people.

Rev. C. M. Fox took his horse to Woodstock, Va., last week and sold him for a good price.

The joint council of Capon pastorate of the Lutheran church has extended a call to Rev. P. J. Wade, of N. C.

Rev. P. Miller, of Rio, was in town for a short time Tuesday evening.

Strawberries.
Mr. Geo. Wright has been supplying our citizens with home grown strawberries. They are of fine quality and many of our people have been enjoying strawberry ice-cream and strawberry short cake.

Mr. Henry Bailey has a fine crop of strawberries this season. He will be able to supply our citizens this, and next, week, and probably later.

brance of us.

THE EDUCATIONAL RALLY.

The Educational Rally held in this place Thursday was well attended especially by the teachers of the county. The attendance of other citizens of the county was not as large as desired.

The address of Dr. W. S. Currier of Washington and Lee University was excellent. It is to be regretted that so few of our people, besides those engaged in educational work, were present to hear and enjoy it. After singing by a selected choir, Hon. M. L.
Walton delivered a good speech. He favored large appropriations for the schools and a mild compulsory education law. His remarks were of a practical character and the teachers, we have no doubt, would characterize them, as to the point.

The last address of the morning session was delivered by Prof.
Latane, of Washington and Lee University. He forcibly illustrated not only the importance of education but the difference between the educated and the uneducated man.

For the afternoon session, Rev. D. H. Kern, of Woodstock and Supt. Hulvey, of Rockingham were booked for addresses, after which Supt. McInturf proposed to turn the meeting over to those who had something to say, and desired to say it.

These meetings are calculated to do much good, and it is to be hoped that they will result in greatly improved schools. The people of Virginia can do what they want to do. It is important that they should be so aroused that they would do what they ought to do.

Gave Bad Checks in Petersburg.
PETERSBURG, VA., May 20.—Some days ago a well-dressed stranger giving his name as W. C. Foster, of Woodstock, Va., bought a kodak at R. L. Watson's book store here for $17.50 and gave check for the amount on the Shenandoah National bank at Woodstock. The check which was drawn from a book of bank checks was returned to-day as "no good," no such person being known. Foster has disappeared and the police want him.
His description is: aged about 45, light five feet, nine inches, dark clothes and black derby hat. It is said the Woodstock bank has recently received from different quarters a number of these worthless checks.

A short time ago, a man giving his name as J. N. Woodfield presented at the Shenandoah National Bank, in this place, a draft for $150, on the First National Bank of Oneonta, New York. The officers of the bank informed him that they would collect the draft and place the amount to his credit. The draft was returned "no good." From the similarity in handwriting he is supposed to be the man representing himself as C. W. Foster.
While in the bank, he picked up some counter checks, which he has probably cut out to suit his purpose.

Returned to Woodstock.
Mr. H. B. Carlton who temporarily accepted the position of manager of "The Kavanagh," Harrisonburg's swell hotel, pending the local option election in Woodstock, has resigned that position and returned to this place, where he is proprietor of the Geary Hotel.

Letter to D. H. Kern.
Woodstock, Va.
Rev. Sir: Three churches in Baldwinville, N. Y., have had their first lesson in Devoe's.

Messrs. Osterhout & Lockwood, painted the Presbyterian parsonage; estimated 30 gallons; took 22.
Messrs. Slingerland & Shutter painted the Episcopal church; estimated 40 gallons; took 28.

Same painters painted the Catholic church; estimated 50 gallons; took 39.
Of course, they estimated from what they had been using. The saving in paint and work is $4 or $5 a gallon.
Total saving on three jobs $125 to $150—the painting costs two or three times as much as the paint, you know.

Yours truly,
F. W. Devoe, & Co.,
C. L. Gibbs, Adv. Co.

D. P. Wine, the postal clerk, who was injured in the wreck at Front Royal several months ago, has resumed his run.

THE ODD FELLOWS REUNION.

The Valley Lodges of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows will hold a reunion in the beautiful grove near Mt. Jackson, Va., on Thursday June 1st. A number of prominent Odd Fellows will be present and deliver ad-

Grand Master of Virginia.

A parade will be formed in Mt.
Jackson and march to the grove, which

ing of Odd
